NAUSICAA OF THE VALLEY OF WIND

Hayao Miyazaki's Epic Environmental Cautionary Tale

Nausicaä, a compassionate young princess, battles to heal a world crippled by ecological disaster and war. Creator Hayao Miyazaki is the world-renowned animator of My Neighbor Totoro, a Fox Video release; and Pom Poko, Japan's entry for the 1995 Academy Awards' Best Foreign Film.

"Nausicaä is one of those rare works that can justifiably be called a graphic novel. To my mind, it's the best graphic novel ever.... If (it) sounds a bit like feudal China, that may be no coincidence. If (it) reminds you of Czarist Russia, that too may be intentional. Like any good fable, you can map this material onto an allegory of your choice...."

Created by world-renowned manga artist and animator Osamu "God of Manga" Tezuka (Astro Boy, Kimba the White Lion), Adolf was nominated for two 1996 Will Eisner Awards and a 1997 Harvey Award.

Meanwhile, Japanese reporter Sohei Toge acquires documents revealing the secret of Hitler's heritage.
